

PROJECT:
STOLEN JEWELLERY

---

THE CASE:

- While away on vacation, our client's unique jewellery worth approximately R2,500,000.00 was stolen.
- The jewellery was not kept in a safe but in a closet in the owner's dressing room.
- When you entered the main bedroom, the dressing room had to be unlocked and only then could you unlock the cupboard.
- Three (3) workers and the couple's child had access to the house during this time.

Specialised Security Services will continue investigating the theft and request polygraphs of everyone who had access to the cabinet. It is, however, imperative that the public understand that these are handcrafted items, of which one such piece includes a cut diamond of R700,000.00.

---

Since these are rare and unique jewellery pieces, specifically made for our client, we request that the public contact us when they see one of these pieces anywhere for sale. Our client wishes her jewellery returned. The jewellery pieces are crafted of gold and precious stones.

Another crucial fact to consider is insurance. Be careful when insuring such precious jewellery. Make sure that it is kept according to the conditions specified by the insurance company.
