

SUCCESS PROJECT:
MISSING PERSON
FOUND
MR JACO SMIT

On Sunday evening 14 May 2023, Mr Jaco Smit stopped alongside the road to retrieve a charger from the boot of his vehicle. Four (4) hijackers then confronted him.

Fortunately, he kept his wits about him and ran away. While running he threw his laptop, keys, phone and wallet in the nearby brush. The criminals caught up with him and took the rest of the money which he had on him. As they tried to force Mr Smit back to his car, he had the opportunity to run away again. He jumped over two (2) fences of nearby homes. He hid away in one of the gardens through the night and throughout Monday in the rain.

When he felt safe enough, he was able to retrieve his cell phone to call a friend to come and help him. He was traumatised to the extent that he was not able to contact anyone else.

He was reported missing when he did not notify his family after the incident. Specialised Security Services was tasked to find him.

Specialist investigator Mr Jan Roos confirmed on Wednesday, 17 May 2023 that Mr Smit is safe and unharmed.

Concerned citizens and frightened loved ones regularly contact Specialised Security Services to help them locate missing family members, as in this case.

We are delighted that we could help find this person unharmed.
