PROJECT:
KNOCKS AND SCAMS
FAKE MIKE BOLHUIS
TIKTOK
INVESTMENT SCAM

URGENT PUBLIC WARNING!

In the ever-evolving landscape of social media, the rise of impersonation and scams has become an unfortunate reality.

Recently, a disturbing case came to light where a fake TikTok account was used to impersonate the well-known security expert and public figure Mike Bolhuis.

This fraudulent account, under the name "mike_bolhuis," copies the real Mr Bolhuis' videos and also poses a significant risk by promoting an investment scam through its bio, directing users to apextradehub.com. The Cybercrime team working alongside

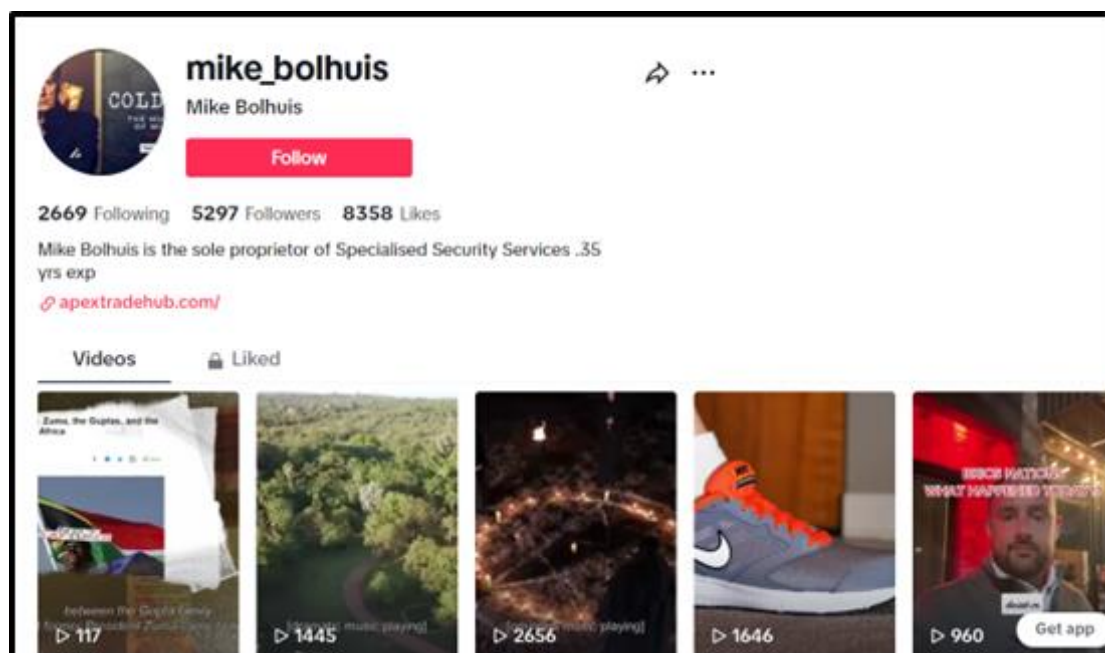

Mr Bolhuis is actively engaged in exposing this fake account and dismantling the investment scam it endorses.

In this project, we shed light on this alarming impersonation, provide real examples of their interactions with victims and urge the public to report and expose these scammers.

THE IMPERSONATION:

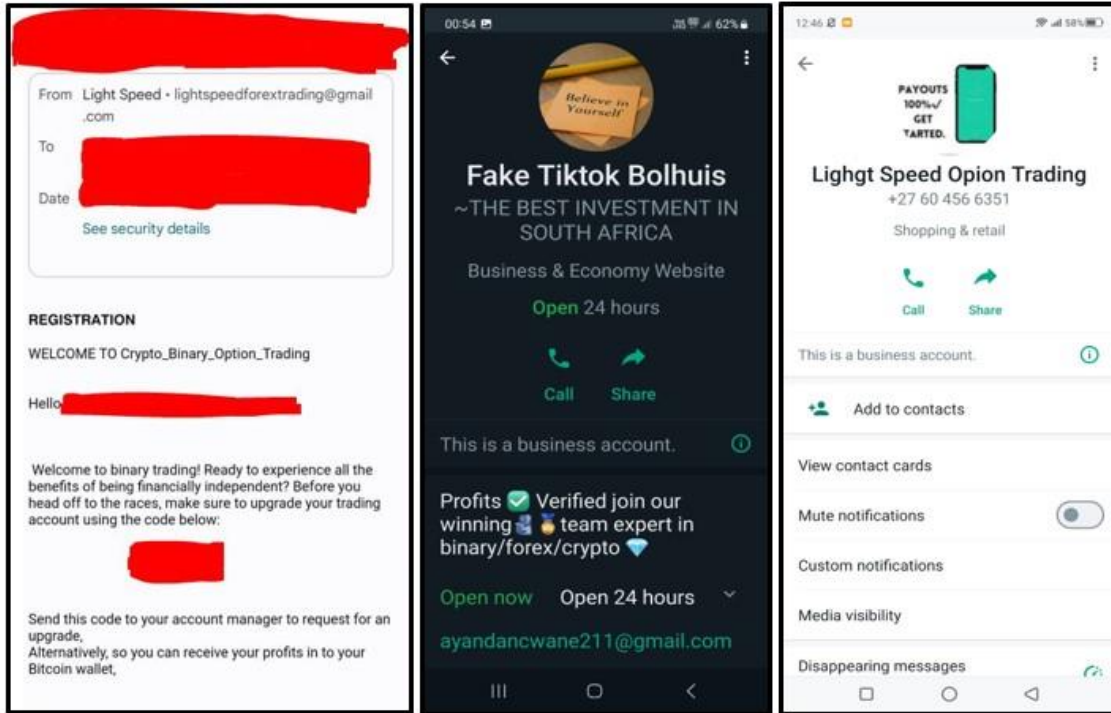

- Impersonation of a public figure like Mike Bolhuis is an alarming incident, highlighting the audacity of scammers on social media platforms.
- The fake TikTok account, "mike_bolhuis," meticulously copies Mike Bolhuis' main videos to lend credibility to their scam.
- The scammers go to great lengths to maintain the illusion of authenticity, even changing the profile picture to that of Mr Bolhuis himself.

- +27 60 456 6351
- +27 79 558 8382

THE INVESTMENT SCAM:

- One of the most concerning aspects of this impersonation is the promotion of an investment scam through the fake TikTok account's bio, which links to apextradehub.com.
- Scammers often prey on unsuspecting victims by promising high returns on investments.
- They exploit the trust that people place in public figures to lend credibility to their fraudulent schemes.

MODUS OPERANDI:

- The fake TikTok account, "mike_bolhuis," initiates contact with potential victims through direct messages (DMs).

- These interactions typically start with a friendly greeting and a few Bible verses to create a facade of trustworthiness and religiosity.
 - Once a rapport is established, the scammers transition to their real objective: persuading victims to invest money in their fraudulent scheme.

PROTECT YOURSELF:

It is essential to exercise caution and vigilance when encountering such impersonations and scams on social media. To protect yourself and others, consider the following:

- Verify Accounts: Always verify the authenticity of accounts that claim to belong to public figures. Look for official verification badges or check the official website and other social media profiles for confirmation.
 - Be Sceptical: Be cautious of unsolicited DMs from strangers, especially those who approach you with investment opportunities.
 - Remember that genuine investment opportunities are rarely presented through direct messages on social media.
 - Do Not Share Personal Information: Never share personal or financial information with strangers online.
 - Legitimate organisations and public figures will never ask for such information through social media messages.
 - Report and Expose: If you come across fake accounts or scams, report them to the respective social media platform and raise awareness within your network.
 - This helps protect others from falling victim to similar scams.
