

SUCCESS PROJECT:
JACQUES MALOT
ARRESTED

Specialised Security Services confirms that Jacques Arthur Malot has been arrested in Sea Point for shoplifting.

This 38-year-old is also a known abuser of women. He has been a fugitive of the law for many years, and our specialist investigators have been relentless in the search for him to stand trial for the felonies he has committed.

Cases of burglary, vehicle theft, domestic violence and kidnapping have been opened against him at various police stations in Gauteng in recent years.

Refer to our previous projects for a clear understanding of the context of his crimes:

In this case, the irony is that this man was arrested for an unrelated and trivial crime in the Cape. As a result of our previous projects, it was realised that he is a wanted fugitive. Therefore, he has been incarcerated and will be transported to Pretoria to stand trial for his crimes.

Specialised Security Services expresses gratitude to all parties involved, the public and the SAPS, for their dedicated efforts in apprehending a dangerous threat to society.

We commend specialist investigator Mr Jan Roos for his commitment to having Jacques Malot, who has been on the run since 2021, arrested.
