PROJECT:
THREATENING CALLS OR MESSAGES FROM UNKNOWN NUMBERS

If you are receiving threatening calls or messages from strange numbers, it is crucial to take immediate action to protect yourself.

Such calls or messages are meant to intimidate people into acting rashly or feeling pressured to make uninformed and impulsive decisions.

THIS PUBLIC DOCUMENT IS INTENDED TO BE SHARED.

PLEASE DO SO.

THE OBJECTIVE OF SSS IS TO SHARE INFORMATION, TO EDUCATE AND FOREWARN THE PUBLIC.

Receiving threatening calls or messages from unknown numbers can be distressing and potentially dangerous. There are several reasons why someone might receive such communications:

- Harassment:
 - In some cases, individuals may receive threatening calls or messages as a form of harassment or intimidation by someone with ill intent.
 - Scams:
 - Scammers often use threatening tactics to coerce individuals into providing personal information or money.
 - These scams may involve fake debt collection, extortion schemes, or impersonation of authorities.
 - Wrong Number:
 - Occasionally, threatening calls or messages may be the result of a misdial or mistaken identity, where the sender or caller intended to target someone else.

To stop receiving threatening calls or messages from unknown numbers, consider taking the following steps:

- Block the Number:
 - Most smartphones allow users to block specific phone numbers.
 - By blocking the number associated with the threatening calls or messages, you can prevent further communication from that source.
- Do Not Engage:
 - Avoid responding to threatening messages or contacting the caller.
 - Responding may encourage further harassment or provide the sender additional opportunities to intimidate or manipulate you.
- Report to Authorities:
 - If the threats are severe or ongoing, consider reporting the incidents to local law enforcement authorities.
 - They can investigate the matter and take appropriate action to ensure your safety.

- Use Call Blocking Apps:
 - Various call-blocking apps are available for smartphones that automatically identify and block spam or unwanted calls.
 - These apps can help filter out threatening calls from unknown numbers.
 - Update Privacy Settings:
 - Review and update your privacy settings on social media platforms and other online accounts to limit the amount of personal information visible to strangers.
 - Consider Changing Your Number:
 - If the harassment persists despite taking preventive measures, you may consider changing your phone number to disrupt the unwanted communication.
 - Seek Support:
 - If you feel threatened or unsafe, contact trusted friends, family members, or support organisations for assistance and guidance on handling the situation.

If you have been threatened in any way and do not have any other alternative, do not hesitate to contact Mr Mike Bolhuis personally.
