

PROJECT:
VOTING IN THE 2024
GENERAL ELECTION

VOTING IN THE 2024 GENERAL ELECTION:
YOU HAVE NO RIGHT TO COMPLAIN ABOUT
GOVERNANCE IF YOU DO NOT DO YOUR BIT AND VOTE.

Voting is a fundamental democratic right and a powerful way for citizens to participate in shaping the future of their country.

In the context of South Africa, there are several compelling reasons why citizens should vote in the next election, which is scheduled for 29 May 2024.

THIS PUBLIC DOCUMENT IS INTENDED TO BE SHARED. PLEASE DO SO.

THE OBJECTIVE OF SSS IS TO SHARE INFORMATION, TO EDUCATE AND FOREWARN THE PUBLIC.

- Democratic Participation:
 - Voting is a cornerstone of a democratic society.
 - It allows citizens to have a say in selecting their leaders and the direction of government policies.
 - By participating in elections, individuals contribute to the democratic process and help ensure that government decisions reflect the people's will.
- Influence on Policies and Governance:
 - Through voting, citizens can influence the formulation of policies and the country's governance.
 - The choices made in elections directly impact the political landscape, shaping the laws, regulations, and initiatives that affect everyone's lives.
- Accountability of Leaders:
 - Voting is a mechanism for holding elected officials accountable.
 - Citizens can approve or disapprove of the current government's performance by participating in elections.
 - This accountability helps maintain a system where leaders are responsive to the needs and concerns of the people.
- Representation:
 - Voting allows citizens to choose representatives who align with their values, priorities, and concerns.
 - A diverse and representative government is essential for addressing the varied needs of a population and ensuring that policies are inclusive and fair.
- Social and Economic Issues:
 - Elections allow citizens to influence decisions on critical social and economic issues.
 - Voting enables individuals to support candidates and parties prioritising issues such as education, healthcare, employment, and other aspects of national development.
- Promoting Change and Progress:
 - Voting is a way for citizens to contribute actively to their country's progress and development.
 - It allows for the possibility of change by electing leaders who bring new ideas, policies, and approaches to address emerging challenges.

- Civic Duty:
 - Voting is often considered a civic duty.
 - Participating in the electoral process demonstrates a commitment to the nation's well-being and a sense of responsibility for the democratic system.
 - It is a way for individuals to contribute positively to the community and society.
- Preserving Democracy:
 - Voting is crucial in preserving and strengthening the democratic principles upon which a nation is built.
 - A robust voter turnout contributes to the legitimacy of the democratic process and helps safeguard against threats to democratic institutions.

Voting is an essential aspect of civic engagement and empowerment. By casting their votes in the next election, citizens of South Africa can actively shape the future of their country, influence policies, and contribute to the vitality of the democratic system.

EXTREMELY IMPORTANT: All potential clients need to be aware that owing to the nature of our work as specialist investigators there are people who have been caught on the wrong side of the law - who are trying to discredit me - Mike Bolhuis and my organisation Specialised Security Services - to get themselves off the hook.

This retaliation happens on social media and creates doubt about our integrity and ability. Doubt created on social media platforms is both unwarranted and untrue.

We strongly recommend that you make up your minds concerning me and our organisation only after considering all the factual information - to the exclusion of hearsay and assumptions.

Furthermore, you are welcome to address your concerns directly with me should you still be unsatisfied with your conclusions. While the internet provides a lot of valuable information, it is also a platform that distributes a lot of false information. The distribution of false information, fake news, slander and hate speech constitutes a crime that can be prosecuted by law. Your own research discretion and discernment are imperative when choosing what and what not to believe.

STANDARD RULES APPLY: Upon appointment, we require a formal mandate with detailed instructions. Please take note that should you not make use of our services – you may not under any circumstance use my name or the name of my organisation as a means to achieve whatever end.
