PROJECT:
CRIMES
RESULTING FROM PORNOGRAPHY

Mr Mike Bolhuis continuously warns against the spirit of debauchery and lust that lies behind this addiction and how it can ruin a person's life. Our initial project warning against addiction to pornography is essential for more context:

Crimes resulting from pornography can vary widely in nature and impact, and it is essential to differentiate between the consumption of pornography itself and the criminal acts that may stem from it.

INTENDED TO BE SHARED.

PLEASE DO SO.

THE OBJECTIVE OF SSS IS TO SHARE INFORMATION, TO EDUCATE AND FOREWARN THE PUBLIC.

- Illegal Production and Distribution:
 - One significant area of concern is the illicit production and distribution of pornography, which often involves non-consensual or exploitative situations.
 - This can include the production of child pornography, the trafficking of individuals for the purpose of creating pornographic material, or the distribution of pornographic content without the consent of those involved.
 - These activities are serious crimes that exploit and harm vulnerable individuals.
- Sexual Exploitation and Trafficking:
 - Pornography can also contribute to the demand for commercial sex acts, leading to an increase in sexual exploitation and trafficking.
 - Some individuals may be coerced or forced into performing sexual acts for pornography or may be trafficked for the purpose of creating pornographic material.
 - This exploitation is often linked to organized crime networks and can have devastating consequences for victims.
- Sexual Violence and Assault:
 - There is ongoing debate and research about the potential link between consuming violent or degrading pornography and committing sexual violence.
 - While it is crucial to recognise that most people who consume pornography do not engage in criminal behaviour, there is evidence to suggest that exposure to certain types of pornography may desensitize individuals to violence or contribute to distorted views of sex and relationships.
 - The causal relationship between pornography consumption and sexual violence is complex and not fully understood.
- Online Exploitation and Cybercrime:
 - The internet has facilitated the widespread distribution of pornography, including illegal material such as child pornography.

- Online platforms also provide opportunities for individuals to engage in unlawful activities related to pornography, such as the grooming of minors for sexual exploitation, the dissemination of revenge porn, or the solicitation of minors for sexual purposes.
 - These activities constitute serious cybercrimes with far-reaching consequences.
 - Legal and Ethical Concerns:
 - Beyond the criminal aspect, there are also legal and ethical debates surrounding pornography, including issues related to consent, privacy, and the depiction of minors or non-consenting individuals.
 - Regulating the production, distribution, and consumption of pornography presents complex challenges, as it involves balancing considerations of free speech, individual rights, and public safety.

In summary, while pornography itself is not inherently criminal, it can contribute to a range of illegal activities and harmful behaviours when it involves exploitation, violence, or non-consensual acts.

Addressing the criminal aspects of pornography requires a multi-faceted approach that encompasses law enforcement, prevention efforts, education, and support for victims.

EXTREMELY IMPORTANT: All potential clients need to be aware that owing to the nature of our work as specialist investigators there are people who have been caught on the wrong side of the law - who are trying to discredit me - Mike Bolhuis and my organisation Specialised Security Services - to get themselves off the hook.

This retaliation happens on social media and creates doubt about our integrity and ability. Doubt created on social media platforms is both unwarranted and untrue.

We strongly recommend that you make up your minds concerning me and our organisation only after considering all the factual information - to the exclusion of hearsay and assumptions.

Furthermore, you are welcome to address your concerns directly with me should you still be unsatisfied with your conclusions. While the internet provides a lot of valuable information, it is also a platform that distributes a lot of false information. The distribution of false information, fake news, slander and hate speech constitutes a crime that can be prosecuted by law. Your own research discretion and discernment are imperative when choosing what and what not to believe.

STANDARD RULES APPLY: Upon appointment, we require a formal mandate with detailed instructions. Please take note that should you not make use of our services – you may not under any circumstance use my name or the name of my organisation as a means to achieve whatever end.
