PROJECT:
PERSON OF INTEREST
KYLE JARDINE

THE CASE:

- In November 2022, our client met Kyle Jardine at a supplement store in Randburg.
- They became friends and started going to the gym together.
- Kyle informed our client that he sells steroids and other supplements.

- In May 2023, our client started receiving phone calls from private numbers.
- This was a so-called police officer indicating that someone had opened a criminal case against him and Kyle for selling steroids.
- Our client had to pay R50,000.00 for the case opened against them to "disappear."
- He further alleged that Kyle was in custody and would be released once the money was paid.
- Our client paid the money into Kyle's bank account.
- A few days later, Kyle contacted our client and said he had been released.
- In June 2023, the threats and extortion of our client continued.
- The money had to be paid into Kyle's bank account every time.
- The extortion continued, and our client was threatened and extorted by the so-called police officer again.
- Private numbers were no longer used, and a cell phone number was identified.
- The total amount extorted exceeded R600,000.00.
- In November 2023, our client contacted Specialised Security Services.
- A comprehensive investigation found that the person behind the extortion was Kyle Jardine.
- A criminal case was opened at SAPS Sandton, and all necessary proof was handed to the SAPS.
- Case: Sandton CAS 367/03/2024 – Fraud / Extortion.
- In the meantime, the subject lost his job and moved from his known residence.
- The Specialised Security Services investigation team attempted to arrange meetings with Jardine, but he failed to attend.
- The investigation continues, and any person with information on Kyle Jardine's whereabouts is requested to contact the investigators.
